

Quinte Baseball Association

Try Out Policy

1. All players should attend 2 (two) (or more) of scheduled tryouts, to be included on any Rep team's roster.
2. Any player, who is a resident within the QBA boundaries at the time tryouts are held, but does not attend tryouts, are not eligible to receive a player release to attend another associations tryouts.
3. Players who have been cut from 1st entry teams in a series with no 2nd entry team will be automatically released from the association if they so chose to try and catch on with another association.
4. In a case where a player is injured and unable to participate in tryouts, a doctor's letter is required. Any player in this situation should still attend the required number of tryouts, assisting in any way possible while there. (The QBA Board must be advised (prior to tryouts) of any/all players with a doctor's letter, in these cases).
5. All player attending tryouts must be registered with QBA to be eligible and to be included.
6. Players must bring the receipt from their registration to their first tryout, or they will not be permitted on the diamond and they will not be considered to having attended that tryout.
7. All players must pay a one-time tryout fee, in cash, at the first try-out, the amount to be set by the Board prior to the start of the tryouts. This fee entitles the player to attend all scheduled tryouts and no further tryout fees will be charged, or collected.
8. Any player not meeting the above criteria and found to be included on a QBA's Rep team's roster may be removed from that roster, and will not be re-added to that roster.
9. No coach will alter or make exceptions to these policies. Any QBA coach doing so may be immediately suspended from QBA coaching duties.
10. Nonresident players must provide a current release from the baseball association where they reside, or they will be excluded from QBA tryouts, until a valid release is presented.

QBA Board members will visit tryouts, to ensure compliance. No deviation from the above rules will be accepted. Complaints from players (or their parents) will be investigated immediately and thoroughly and any situations in conflict with the QBA policy will be resolved immediately.
