

Quinte Royals Baseball

Players Code of Conduct

I agree to respect the game, teammates, coaches, executive members and the umpires.

I understand that the umpire's call is final and will not argue.

I will not make negative comments to the umpire while on the field or bench.

I will not argue or make negative comments about my coach.

I will discuss issues/disagreements with coaches and players in a calm manner and in a private setting. The 24-hour rule is encouraged when applicable.

I will not make negative comments against other players when a mistake happens.

I will always look and pay attention to my coach when he/she is speaking.

I understand that I must always keep my temper under control.

I understand that swearing, throwing equipment or any other negative actions that interfere with the game could have me removed from the game and a possible suspension.

I will always try hard for myself and for my teammates.

I will take pride in myself and lead by example while in the field or on the bench.

I will respect the rules of the game and always play by them.

I will try my best to attend all games and practices.
